

ASSP Job Description | Safety Instructor

Job Summary:

We are seeking multiple part-time, contractual Safety Instructors to deliver pre-developed ASSP certificate program courses on various safety management topics, including:

- ANSI/ASSP Z16
- Risk Management
- Safety Management
- Leadership in Safety Management
- Occupational Health and Safety Management System

Instructors will be responsible for leading engaging and informative training sessions, ensuring participants understand key safety concepts and industry's best practices.

Key Responsibilities:

- Conduct instructor-led training sessions using course materials provided
- Deliver engaging and interactive lessons that enhance learner understanding
- Answer participant questions and facilitate discussions
- Ensure training is conducted in alignment with industry regulations and best practices
- Provide real-world examples to reinforce learning objectives
- Assess participant engagement and comprehension through discussions and exercises
- Maintain professionalism and enthusiasm while instructing diverse audiences

Qualifications:

- Professional experience in safety management, occupational health or risk management
- Certifications such as CSP (Certified Safety Professional) or OSHA Authorized Trainer are preferred
- Prior experience in training, instructing or public speaking
- Expert in safety regulations, risk management and workplace safety best practices
- Excellent communication and presentation skills
- Ability to engage and motivate adult learners

AMERICAN SOCIETY OF SAFETY PROFESSIONALS

Work Environment:

- Courses may be delivered in-person, online or at client locations as needed
- Flexible scheduling options available
- Travel may be required depending on the training location

If you are a safety professional with a passion for training and education, we encourage you to apply to become part of our team!